Tindall unseats Farmer as Harris wins over Meredith

BELLE GLADE—Captain Claude Tindall swapped his title for City Commissioner Tuesday night as he forced veteran Commissioner Aubrey Farmer to the sidelines in a hard-fought city election, but incumbent Kenneth Harris staved off a challenge by Earl Meredith to go into his second term.

The North Borough race was the big news throughout the election campaign over the past two months and was still the top attention getter Tuesday when Tindall ended Farmer's 14 years on the commission by a margin of 945-738 votes.

But the East Borough contest was the tighter of the two contested races as Harris picked up 52.3 percent of the voters there to win, 819-747. William Gear garnered 1,163 votes to go in unopposed in the West Borough for his fourth two-year term.

City Clerk June Boglioli and Elections Clerk Cecil Conley reported things went smoothly during the day of an exceptionally light 35 percent voter turnout as only 1,783 of the registered 5,087 city electors turned out to cast their ballots on the new Votomatic election machines.

But there was one minor problem as one of the three vote counters refused to cooperate after the polls closed, leaving two counters to tally the votes.

There was the possibility of another problem also as 100 of the 1,783 persons who cast ballots failed to register a valid choice in the North Borough race and 217 failed to make a choice in the East Borough race.

Palm Beach County Supervisor of Elections Jackie Winchester, on hand for the tally, said there is a possibility some votes were lost by voters punching two holes in the ballot space for one borough race.

She said that margin of error couldn't be checked on the small portable counters used Tuesday night. She said the large computer she would use for county elections could detect how many votes were lost in that manner but added she wouldn't have a chance to check the problem unless asked to do so by the city.

She said checks in other city elections on the coast, in which the Votomatic was used, indicated only half of one percent of the votes cast were lost by duplicate punching in the same race.

During the primary city election in 1976, only three votes were lost in the tightest of the two races by using the mechanical voting machines compared to 100 lost in the tightest of the two races Tuesday and 217 were lost in the other race, the margins of victory could conceivably be narrowed or even

COC officers elected

BELLE GLADE—The Chamber of Commerce board of directors elected Dale Stapp as president for the coming fiscal year when they approved a slate of officers for the executive committee last Thursday.

The rest of the slate of officers included John Turnbull as first vice president, Charles Trammel as second vice president and Vernon Dexter as treasurer.

The new officers will replace outgoing President Cecil Conley, first vice president Wayne Mikell, second vice president Edward Duda and treasurer Mary Orsenigo.

Because Duda has also resigned from the board of directors, pending a move to Oviedo, the board will also be charged with the responsibility of appointing a new director from the slate of alternate directors.

Four new members were announced last week following a general election by the membership. Named to the board were James Gressinger, James Gann, Jane Thompson and Tom Bonavia. The board also discussed the Annual Awards Banquet, changing the name of the top award from Man of the Year to Citizen of the Year. A Police Officer of the Year and Agri-businessman of the Year will also be named.

Top speaker of the night will be Florida Commissioner of Insurance Bill Gunter and Robert C. Lee will again emcee the banquet. Invitations were to have been sent out this week.

Tickets for the October 20 event, slated to be held again at the Elks Lodge, will be priced at $10 each by the Chamber. The price of the tickets will cover a meal of prime ribs catered by Fr-Eddy's. One change this year is that there will be no fast bar and Chamber members will only be able to purchase drinks from the bar through an Elks Club member.

In other business, the directors agreed to reject the offer made last month by City Manager Robert Sanders to allow the Chamber to use the city hall annex as a new chamber building rather than have the city build a new home for the chamber and be reimbursed.

AUDREY TINDALL congratulates new City Commissioner Claude Tindall Tuesday night for his victory over veteran incumbent Aubrey Farmer.

Law officers salute Hampton

BELLE GLADE—Law enforcement officers, attorneys and judges helped swell an already large crowd which appeared Tuesday morning to pay final tribute to Assistant State's Attorney Kerry Hampton, who died in an automobile accident Saturday.

As the casket was carried from St. John's First Baptist Church on Southwest Eighth Street in a somber procession, the young prosecuting attorney, received a final salute from an honor guard of officers representing all five of the enforcement agencies in the Glades.

Palm Beach County State's Attorney David Bludworth, one of the many law-related officials who appeared for the funeral service, said Hampton was one of the most popular assistants he had ever assigned to the Glades Office Building, echoing sentiments expressed by a number of officers at the service.

"When we assigned him to the Glades," Bludworth said, "we weren't sure how he'd do. He was awfully young but he was doing a tremendous job and everybody out here seemed to get along well with him and think highly of him."

"As a matter of fact," Bludworth said, "I was planning to put him in charge of the Glades office and send him an assistant."

Hampton, 27, was a native of Ocala but was making his home at

SR80 ribbon cut

BELLE GLADE—During a 30 minute, heat-drenched ceremony Saturday morning, the seven miles of State Road 80 that has been four-laned from South Bay to Hooker Highway was officially opened with a ribbon-cutting on the Main Street bridge of Belle Glade.

Turning out for the ribbon-cutting were representatives from South Bay, Belle Glade and Pahokee, among other featured speakers, including state legislators.

With former County Commissioner Bud Weaver serving as Master of Ceremonies, a round of comments were made on the "beginning of the end." Since the initial groundbreaking two years ago, "we've come a long way" with "a minimum amount of complaints," Weaver said.

Insurance Safety Commissioner Colonel Reid Clifton, of whom the new Florida Highway Patrol building in Pahokee was named, noted, along with Senator Phil Lewis, the importance of the new road as evidenced by a car that when it hit the road on SR 80 during Clifton's trip to Belle Glade. "The major highways in the Glades should all be four-laned," he said for it has been "death trap" for many years.

Senator Lewis urged the Canal Hazard Safety Committee to "keep up the good work" with emphasis aimed at four-laning the road from the Glades Court House to West Palm Beach.

Representative Tom Lewis said the four-laning of the next 13.8 miles should be the first priority of the county. "We need to erase the connotation of Killer on SR 80," Lewis said.

Deputy gets lift from van

SOUTH BAY—Earl Plank just opened a new door to the world... and he doesn't need help opening or closing it.

Plank, who is chief dispatcher at the Glades substation of the Palm Beach Sheriff's Office, also is a wheelchair victim who refuses to believe his handicap makes him a victim.

Which is probably one of the reasons he was named Florida

Lawman of the Year at the Second Annual Florida Prosecuting Investigators Convention in Orlando in November 1973.

At any rate, Plank, who lost the use of his legs when he was accidentally shot at the age of eight, has been managing to drive around the Glades for years in his hand control-equipped pickup truck.

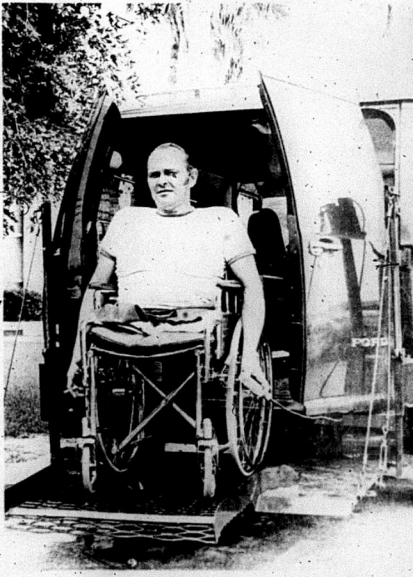

The only problem he had, after swinging his body from the wheelchair into the cab, was that he wasn't able to fold up his wheelchair and haul it up after him.

Which meant that while he could drive as independently as anyone else, there had to be someone else around to lend a helping hand when he got into or out of his pickup.

No more. That dependence on others, which must have galled someone like Plank, ended last week when he bought a van equipped with an elevator platform.

Elevator-equipped vans aren't all that uncommon; as a matter of fact, Lou Ann Austin, one of the other dispatchers at the local Sheriff's Office detachment, also has a van with an elevator.

What makes Plank's rig unique is that it's set up so he can control

Wells and Sullivan win in South Bay

SOUTH BAY—City voters turned out in heavier numbers than in the primary Tuesday night to return Billy C. Wells and elect Ray Sullivan to the City Commission in two hotly contested runoff races.

A total of 567 voters turned out in the runoff, compared to 534 in the primary, to give Wells his 266-258 victory over Doris Sanford Davis and to boost Sullivan over Thomas P. Adams by 280 votes to 246.

Because voters in the primary changed the city's election date from September to March, Wells and Sullivan will serve 30 month terms instead of the usual two year terms.

The next election will be held in March 1979 when Mayor Don Tanner and Commissioners Woodrow "Woody" O'Neal and Vernita Cox will face the possibility of re-election campaigns after 30 months in office.

Sullivan, who served on the commission once several years ago, said Tuesday he would have to become re-oriented into the problems facing the commission.

Wells said he would like to continue several projects now underway and he has several other projects in mind to begin during the next two and a half years.

In the primary election last week, Adams had a three-way race, lacking only two votes to win a clear-cut victory over Sullivan and John Jupiter Meadows.

During the same Election, Wells and Davis eliminated Charlie Reese but while Wells led the race, he didn't have enough votes to win the election without a runoff.

And annual Pahokee men's softball banquet Saturday night was a show worthy of the tremendous attendance.

It's held to honor outstanding players in the men's softball league, elect new officers, and in general relive experiences and plan on next summer's campaign.

And if there ever was a "railroad" job, Roy Goodson was on the receiving end. Roy, who served extremely well as last year's president, opened the floor for nominations for that prestigious office and immediately, a dozen people re-nominated him, followed by a dozen motions that "nominations cease."

There wasn't much else he could do. So he is again the guiding light. And even though Roy received no trophies or awards, he was rewarded for his efforts over the past year with a standing ovation from the crowd.

Our congratulations to the winning team in the league, Wedgeworth, and to Gary Bradshaw, the most valuable player in the league. Gary received a trophy that took two men and three little boys to carry from the room.

Phil Bonnel received the Most Valuable Pitcher trophy and Ronnie Huff tied down the best batting average. Their trophies were only slightly less impressive.

It was a good year for softball and enthusiasts are looking forward to an even better one next year.

Football got off to a flying start last week with Pahokee High winding up on the losing end and Glades Day shutting out the opposition.

Glades Day's bout with St. Petersburg North was a messy, with penalties and fumbles, but as the Gators gain game experience, they appear to be a team to contend with in Class A competition.

For some years now, Sonny Stalls of the Clewiston News, and I have been plying odds on the Moore... Haven-Clewiston games. He's managed to win all but one.

But this year, he won't even talk to me about the Pahokee-Clewiston match. Not even if I give him 14 points or so. Even though Pahokee fell to Suncoast Friday night, they're still a power in the Glades. It's doubtful that even new Tiger coach Al Morrell (who by the way was born in Pahokee and lived there before moving to Clewiston) can get the Tigers up enough to defeat the Blue Devils.

Glades Central opens this weekend after enjoying a one-week vacation and all that can be said of the Raiders is that they are, will be, and likely will continue to be tough. Some teams are like that.

We're looking forward to an exciting football season in the Glades... and we hope you are too, no matter which of the three area teams you'll be supporting.

It's a step in the right direction. State Attorney Robert Stone of the 19th Judicial Circuit, announced recently his office will not "plea bargain" anymore. Instead, his assistants have been instructed to file charges they think will stick and no more. It will be up to the defendant to either plead guilty or innocent and to stand trial if he wishes to fight the charges.

There will be no more "deals" worked out whereby the defendant pleads guilty to lesser charges.

The defenders of plea bargaining say it is necessary because of overcrowding in the courts. But the sad fact is, plea bargaining hasn't been a rousing success story.

The only way we in this country will gain on the increasing amount of crime is to offer punishment, swift and sure, for those convicted of these acts. Rehabilitation hasn't worked and neither has plea bargaining.

"Punishment is the key. And it appears to me that Mr. Stone is moving in the right direction."

It'll be interesting to watch proceedings in the 19th Circuit, which includes Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River, and Okeechobee Counties, to see how this "new" old system develops.

When is policy not policy?

It must, as Tom Lewis said, be a matter of whose ox is being gored.

The problem concerns what State Department of Transportation policy is on constructing crossovers through medians of major roads and Representative Lewis testifies in a letter he wrote to Bill Fowler, district engineer for the DOT.

Normally, we don't reprint letters originally mailed to other people but this time we feel there is good reason for an exception. Take it away, Mr. Lewis.

Last December, my office received a great deal of information regarding a median crossover on State Road 80 in front of Traveler's Motor Lodge in Belle Glade. Through correspondence from your office I was advised that DOT refused the request of Mr. John Vayais for safety reasons, to put in a median crossover because of the Department's policy controlling median openings.

I personally went and examined the location with Mr. Tom Altman, City Commissioner from Belle Glade, and in my opinion, there was no reason a median crossover could not have been constructed during the completion of SR 80. This is only a small portion of background information regarding this particular project.

NOW, eight months later, a median crossover is being constructed on U.S. Highway No. 1 in North Palm Beach. On the east side of the road Ruby Construction Company from Orlando is building a Sambo's Restaurant. They requested the crossover, DOT approved it and the construction company is paying for it.

There is no reason why this should be taking place if what was outlined regarding DOT policy on median openings holds true. The median crossover construction has caused a tremendous traffic hazard due to the fact that it is only 45 feet from the main intersection of U.S. No. 1 and Northlake Boulevard, the already established median is being torn up - cement flying everywhere and it violates everything the department construes as traffic measures and feasibility.

Not only that - it is nothing but self serving. There is no through street and furthermore it violates any and everything that was told to me regarding the denial of the same type project in Belle Glade.

Bill, this happens to be two blocks from my office and I feel like my face is being rubbed right in it. It is a mockery and makes a sham of the people's right to ask the state for assistance, understanding and relief in a given situation and then be refused on a pretext of a safety hazard and yet the state turns right around and provides a crossover in a situation that is far more dangerous than the first refusal mentioned in paragraph 1 of this letter.

There is a traffic signal and cross street 450 feet north of this construction that should have a stacking lane installed for left turns to accommodate the problem at Sambo's Restaurant. Mr. Fowler, my arguments are the same ones you used on me to deny the crossover on SR 80. Are we working with a double standard? The City Council of North Palm Beach did not even have knowledge of this crossover until they observed the construction. The City Commission of Belle Glade and other entities requested a crossover for the Traveler's Motor Lodge and were denied.

It is my intention to take this problem to the Secretary of DOT and House and Senate committees if work on this cross-

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I'm writing to you concerning a problem that we as young people are having.

There are not enough part-time jobs in Palm Beach County for the teenagers.

I feel there should be more jobs provided for the teenagers, who want to work after school, from four to six in the afternoon, weekdays, and on weekend and holidays. On weekends and holidays the working hours could be from nine in the morning until five in the evening.

We, as teenagers would like to work, to help us through school and to help our parents out. We need the extra money for things we want but don't want to ask our parents for the money.

Yours very truly,
Daphney Smith

over currently in progress on U.S. No. (SR 5) in North Palm Beach is not closed immediately and the road returned to its original configuration. In my judgement DOT should install the left turn stacking lane at South Anchorage Drive and U.S. No. 1 where an existing street intersection and traffic signal are located in accordance with so-called DOT policy. However, nothing should be done until a resolution from the North Palm Beach City Council is adopted approving such installation.

I would appreciate hearing from you regarding this matter. Sincerely,
Tom Lewis

War on paper

It must be some kind of commentary on our present society when a federal commission responsible for recommending ways to cut down on paperwork and red tape recommends that a new agency be created to do the job.

The Federal Paperwork Commission goes out of business Oct. 2 and will recommend in its final report the creation of a new cabinet-level department to help bring paperwork under control.

This new department, called naturally the Department of Administration, would consolidate all the government's paperwork, information and communication-related functions under one branch.

Instead of stemming the flow of paperwork, the chances are extremely great this new agency would only add to the tide, if the history of bureaus is repeated.

And it's typical of federal thinking... "If something doesn't work, add another agency."

That kind of thinking is what has landed us in the red tape mire we now inhabit.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

World War 1 which brought about Armistice Day was caused by a conglomeration of human idiosyncrasies. These consisted of lust for power, inflation of the Ego, Malappropriation of God's prerogatives, and the selfish desires of human beings.

Long before, but especially since Alexander The Great was convinced he had conquered the world, and there were no more worlds to conquer and he bumped himself off, the same greed, lust, envy, coveting, selfish desires and ego-mania to outdo and out accomplish past rulers in the field of conquerors has been uppermost in the minds of many rulers of nations. Their desire for greatness has blinded their minds to true greatness.

In 1914 Wild Bill Hohenzollerin, lovingly known as Kaiser bill by the Doughboys; conceived the idea he had received a Divine Mandate from his "Gott" to take over the world. His Panzer divisions and other branches of the armed services were doing a pretty good job of carrying out his plans, until some of his Naval Commanders - sunk the wrong ships. Our Country heard the cries of England, France and other beleaguered nations; and President Wilson, who was elected on the promise to keep us out of war, finally succumbed to the pressure and committed our nation to this war.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

Georgia Curry died last week. Georgia was a friend of mine. She was one of the first friends I made when I moved to South Florida seven years ago, and opened up a Fort Pierce news bureau and she was a staffer on a local weekly.

The last time I saw her, the roles had been reversed. She'd come to Belle Glade as a bureau writer for the same daily I'd started out with and I was a staffer on a weekly.

Saturday, I made the trip to Fort Pierce, along with a lot of other people who claimed her friendship, to bury Georgia. Georgia had a lot of friends, many from the Glades.

The reason wasn't hard to figure out for anyone who knew her. She had to be one of the most giving people I've ever known. God knows Georgia had sufficient problems of her own over the years but I don't recall her ever really dwelling on them. She was too busy caring about other people and their problems for that.

Physically, she was a little waif of a woman with the type of humor that leant an impossibly wide smile, or grim, depending on the situation, to such a thin face.

Her brand of humor and affection came through beautifully in a picture of the two of us and Biff Lampton a couple of years ago when a mutual friend decided to get a shot of the working press on the job. Georgia threw her arms as far as she could get them around me...which wasn't nearly all the way.

I guess I forgot to mention.

Georgia Curry was black. But then, that wasn't something I particularly noticed unless it came out in the form of a joke, like the time we were in a cane field, with a wind whipping much over everybody and she said she'd finally had a peach. She used her complexion because the muck dust didn't show up quite as bad on her as on anyone else out there.

Or when she talked about a book she started to write during the time I knew her. It was supposed to be a definitive work on what it means to be a black woman in the South.

And Georgia was strong. She had to be to accomplish any part of a book she started to write.

An early marriage and the task of raising two small boys on her own never left her time to get the college degree most newspapers require before hiring a reporter.

She got where she did by guts and ability alone...and she had a goodly share of both. Shortly after I met her, she tried to parlay her experience on a small weekly into a job as a reporter with a daily but the daily wanted either more experience or a degree.

A few years later, that same daily needed a reporter for the Belle Glade bureau and they went to her. I remember running into the editor just before she came out here and he told me I and a lot of other people here were going to be surprised at the quality of work she'd do.

I guess he forgot I'd known her before...either that or thought I'd underrated her at the time. I knew better.

Because Georgia Curry was a professional even before she learned the tricks of the newspaper trade. She was a pro by attitude and she was a pro by ability and that's the highest praise known for someone in the business.

She was a writer to the end, writing the program for her own funeral, which should mean something to the other young writers she helped along the way. She traveled a long, rough road in a few short years and life didn't give her many breaks but I don't know anyone who ever felt sorry for her. It's hard to feel pity for someone who has the brand of strength, humor and wit.

And she kept those qualities to the end, when she knew she was dying and instructed Kenneth Jenkins, another of her friends who delivered a message at the funeral, "please keep it under 20 minutes."

I suppose the thing I most regret about her death at such an early age is that I'll never know how far she has come. She was just hitting her stride when it was all over. I'm going to miss her.

Miss Dykes weds Mr. Fred Towell

KNOXVILLE, TENN.—Miss Laura Lee Dykes, of South Bay, became the wife of Fred E. Towell, of Belle Glade, at Gayland Heights Baptist Church in Knoxville, Tenn., on Aug. 12.

The Rev. Jimmy Brukhart officiated at the ceremony.

An altar spray of spring flowers and cathedral candelabra decorated the church.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of candlelight satin with a high ruffle stand-up collar, long sleeves with self-ruffle at the wrists and appliques of Alencon lace on the cuffs and on the waist band. A tiara encrusted with seed pearls held her mantilla of Alencon lace. She carried a white Bible with yellow roses, babies breath and daisies.

Tania Whaley, of Knoxville, a cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a floor length pin flower print dress, trimmed with eyelet lace. It featured puff sleeves, a high neck and a flounced skirt. She carried a single long stem red rose.

Jeanne Woodard, sister of the groom from Belle Glade, was the only bridesmaid. She wore a dress identical to that of the maid of honor.

Ray Towell, brother of the groom from Belle Glade, was the best man, and Brad Whaley, cousin of the bride from Knoxville, was the usher.

The bride's mother wore an emerald green crepe street-length dress. Her corsage was white carnations.

The groom's mother's dress was an aqua color street-length dress with eyelet lace sleeves. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

After the ceremony the bride presented roses from her bouquet to her mother and mother-in-law.

The reception was held at Fellowship Hall, Gayland Heights Baptist Church. The main table was decorated with lace tablecloth, silver candelabra with pale yellow candles and the two-tier cake, decorated with yellow roses and lilies of the valley and topped by a bride and groom.

Assisting with the reception were Teresa Hall, Pam Bunlap, Becky Plunn, sisters of the bride of Knoxville and Linda Whaley, aunt of the bride also from Knoxville.

Cindy Cook, of Belle Glade, kept the bride's book.

Following a honeymoon at Maggie Valley, N.C. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Towell are making their home in Belle Glade.

The new Mrs. Towell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dykes of South Bay. She attended Young High School in Knoxville and graduated from Glades Central High School.

Towell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Towell of Belle Glade. He is a graduate of Glades Central High School and is employed by his father at Lester Towell Distributors.

Out-of-town guests were Cindy Cook, Jeanne Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. George Towell, Terri, Billy and Ralph, Mary Francis Towell, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Towell, all of Belle Glade. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson, South Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Billie Gates, Billy Gates Decatur, Ala.; and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Parson, Lee, and Mark of Belle Glade.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Towell

Omicron Iota holds its beginning day luncheon

Omicron Iota launched their new year of many activities with their annual Beginning Day Luncheon on Saturday, August 27, at the home of GeeGee Collinsworth, this year's president, who co-hosted the event with her mother, Mrs. Phyllis Pierce of Apollo Beach, Fla. Last year's president, Jayne Boynton, was presented with the scrapbook of all activities undertaken last year. While the scrapbook was being passed around for all to see a short-business meeting was held. After the meeting everyone was treated to a superb salad lunch. Everyone who attended brought small kitchen items which were exchanged with each other after lunch. All the girls had a very delightful time and are looking forward to the year with great excitement.

Those attending the luncheon were: GeeGee Collinsworth, Phyllis Pierce, Deborah Altman, Jayne Boynton, Diane Carter, Leann Hayes, Pennie Hughes, Barbara Hyneman, Julie Mills, Cloty Murphy, Judy Schiele, Jane Thompson, and Sharon Wedgworth.

Two local pharmacists attend lens course

The Florida Pharmaceutical Association sponsored a concentrated course in the use and care of the new soft contact lenses last week-end. The presentation by representatives of the American Optical Company at the Holiday Inn of Palm Beach Gardens was attended by Joe Hughes, of Hughes Pharmacy, and Joe Thomas, Chief Pharmacist of Best-Buy Drugs. Hughes said the course was designed to familiarize pharmacy personnel with both hard and soft contact lenses so they could be better able to assist patients in the proper selection of solutions and accessories.

Blood bank now open for donors

PAHOKEE—Beginning Monday, the blood bank facility at Everglades Memorial Hospital, 200 S. Barfield in Pahokee will be open for donors from noon until 8 p.m.

The Pahokee branch of the multi-County Palm Beach Blood Bank will be headed by Marjorie Brown, R.N., assisted by Gloria Wyatt and Everglades hospital volunteers.

It is hoped, according to a spokesman, the new hours will make it more convenient for residents to give a pint of blood and help maintain a safe community blood supply at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Amador

Harris-Amador wedding announced

BELLE GLADE—Miss Teresa Ann Harris became the bride of Pedro Ernesto Amador, Jr. August 19 in a candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. Ray Stedham at the First Baptist Church of Belle Glade.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white taffeta overlaid with chiffon. The bodice, of lace and accented by miniature pearls, featured a scoop neckline and bell sleeves with floral appliques. The fingertip veil was held by a caplet of lace adorned with pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds, baby's breath and variegated greenery.

The vows were spoken before a white satin kneeling bench. Large green palms and three calceolarias decorated the altar.

Miss Marilyn Hartbarger served as maid of honor. She was dressed in a floor-length yellow sleeveless gown featuring a V-neckline. A yellow flocked cape, trimmed in white flat lace covered the bodice. Miss Hartbarger carried a single long-stemmed white rose.

The bridesmaids were Miss Diana Harris, Miss Charleen Harris and Miss Linda Harris, sisters of the bride. Miss Kathy Harris, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor, with only a difference in the capes that covered their bodices.

Miss Amy Rhodes, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a yellow flocked dress with a cape attached.

Tony Alvarez served as best man. The groomsmen were Jerry Fundora, Jose Catro and Nacho Alvarez. Jeff Rhodes, cousin of the bride, served as ringbearer. Their attire consisted of black tuxedos and yellow ruffled shirts with French cuffs.

Mrs. John Youngblood, the organist, provided the music.

After the vows were spoken, the groom presented the bride with thirteen gold coins, "arras", displaying a family tradition.

The bride's mother and the groom's mother wore formal length dresses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Belle Glade Civic Center.

The tables were covered with white lace underlaid with yellow cloth. A three-tier white wedding cake trimmed with yellow roses and green petals draping each tier bedecked the main table.

Serving the reception refreshments were Mrs. Larue Tripp, Miss Debbie Sprinkle, Miss Sylvia Rodriguez and Miss Maria Torres.

Miss Linda Baker and Mrs. Alberto Latour, the groom's sister, kept the bride's book.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Harris of 975 S.E. First St. in Belle Glade.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro E. Amador of 301 N.W. Ave. K in Belle Glade.

Xi Beta Gamma holds luncheon

BELLE GLADE—Members of the Xi Beta Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a "Beginning of the Year" luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carpenter Saturday, September 10.

Mrs. Lorenzo Connell, president, gave members a brief resume of anticipated events of the coming year.

Attending the luncheon were,

Garden Study Club begins new year

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade Garden Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Douglas Thompson for its first meeting of the new club year. Mrs. Tom Swager assisted as co-hostess.

Mrs. Bobby Steele, president of the club, presided over the business meeting, asking for reports from all chairmen.

Mrs. Marian Chapman, vice president, gave an outline of the programs planned for each month. She then introduced the morning speaker, Mrs. Ruby Jones.

Mrs. Jones is a member of the Garden Study Club, being a state life member of Florida Garden Club and a Master Flower Show judge.

Mrs. Jones brought four fresh arrangements and for her demonstration told the members the important rules for making each: triangle, mass, modern and line arrangements. There was much interest shown and questions asked by all.

Mrs. Robert Creech announced the contest winners of the triangle arrangement for the meeting as Mrs. Tom Swager first, Mrs. Ruby Jones second and Mrs. Charles Trammell third. Zinnia specimen winners were, Mrs. T. Swager first, Mrs. D. Thompson second.

Other members attending the meeting were Mrs. James Ball, Mrs. Ed Duda, Mrs. Mary Roth, Mrs. George Suttle, Mrs. Alvaro Sanchez, Mrs. Pablo Vincent, Marie Bregger, Mrs. Guy Wood and Mrs. Karl Larson.

Cardiovascular screening clinic will begin

BELLE GLADE—The cardiovascular screening clinic will begin its fifth year of giving free tests when the Glades General Hospital Auxiliary opens the doors at 9 a.m. Tuesday, according to Mrs. Frank Dooley.

The Auxiliary, working voluntarily in conjunction with Glades General Hospital, will be located in the old wing of the hospital, running blood tests, taking medical histories and giving electrocardiograms for anyone free of charge.

Mrs. Dooley said those interested in undergoing the tests should make an appointment by going by or calling the Belle Glade office of the Palm Beach County Health Department on Northwest Avenue D.

As usual, Mrs. Dooley said the clinic test results will be sent to Jacksonville, where they'll be analyzed and returned to the patient's physician or, if there is no family physician, to the patient.

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade Rotarians were treated to a slide show and lively lecture on travel in the Orient and Asia Minor Monday at their regular luncheon meeting.

Ms. Vickie Challancin, a native of Belle Glade who taught school in Abu Dhabi, gave the slide presentation and told of her travels.

Ms. Challancin said she originally thought she would be teaching English, but wound up teaching everything from English to math.

Abu Dhabi, which is a small Arab emirate located on the Persian Gulf, is the richest nation in the world with an average income of over $25,000 yearly.

She said "everything you hear about the Arabs is true, including their driving around in huge luxury cars, the 'eye for an eye' type of justice which has resulted in very little crime, and the problems of the Middle East.

Being a 'women's liberator,' she said it was amazing but true that Arab women still must shroud themselves while in public and noted the cost of living in Abu Dhabi is very high. Her flat cost the company for $12,000 yearly.

Besides her teaching, Ms. Challancin traveled widely in the Middle East and the Orient. Some of the countries she visited included Turkey, Iran, Taiwan, Japan, Afghanistan, Thailand, Nepal, and India.

Most of the slides she showed the Rotarians dealt with Taiwan, Japan, Indonesia, Afghanistan, and Nepal.

Her lively delivery dealt with the customs of the people and included few of the "normal" tourist attractions such as temples and shrines.

Her grasp of the countries she visited showed clearly that she was interested not only in travel, but also in the people of different nations and their ethnic backgrounds.

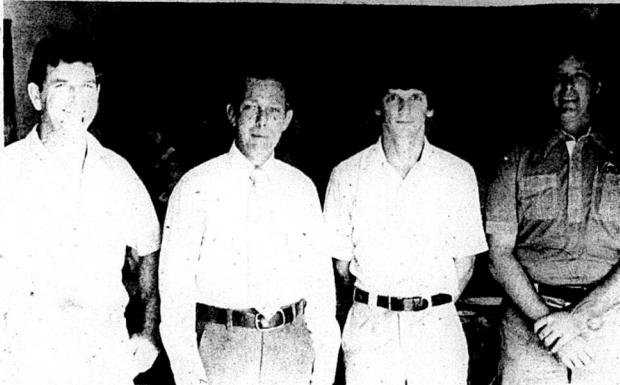

In other Rotary business, Fred Simons inducted two new members into the club, Harold Roland and Dennis Wedgworth, as part of the continuing membership drive.

President Bob White also told the local club members of a district conference in Palm Beach in October and told them to make their reservations soon.

PAHOKEE—Laurel Tarr, daughter of Mrs. Veronica Harrington of 152 South Flame Avenue in Pahokee and Tania Perez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raul Perez of 290 Cypress Avenue in Pahokee, will be attending the University of Florida in Gainesville, Florida this fall.

Both young ladies are 1975 graduates of Pahokee High School and 1977 graduates of Palm Beach Junior College. Miss Tarr will be working towards a degree in Early Childhood Education and Miss Perez will be working towards a degree in Business Administration. They will be leaving Pahokee on Saturday, September 24th.

NEW BELLE GLADE ROTARY members inducted Monday and their sponsors were Earl Croan, who sponsored Harold Roland, and Dennis Wedgworth, who was sponsored by Don Whitehurst. The local Rotary Club is in the midst of a membership drive.

PBJC receives library grant

By Alice Zacherl

BELLE GLADE—Dr. Cecil Conley has announced that a grant of $3,855 has been awarded to the PBJC Glades Library by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in Washington. This grant is funded under the College Library Resources Program and provides assistance to small and new libraries in meeting state and federal standards.

Miss Alice Zacherl, librarian at the Glades Campus, will administer the funds. She says the federal monies will be used to purchase books and reference materials to further develop the collection.

The Glades Library collection contains nearly 3,000 books, but this is far short of the American Library Association minimum recommendation of 6,000 books for schools with an enrollment of 500 students.

The Glades PBJC library is temporarily housed in the Armory Building and is open 36 hours per week for student and faculty use. Mrs. Kay Newkirk and Mrs.

Sonya Watkins are also employed in the library to assist with selection, circulation and utilization of library materials.

Glades Central Update

By Benita Harrison

BELLE GLADE—The students at Glades Central High School had their first class meeting during the week of Labor Day. The students were given their handbooks and rules were set down for the 77-78 school year.

We are looking forward to the coming week. The activities include the first Junior Varsity football game, to be held at home today against Fort Pierce Central.

On Friday, the first pep rally of the 77 school year will be held. Afterwards the varsity will play their first football game for the 77 school year. They will be playing Atlantic High School in Delray Beach.

On Thursday, Sept. 22 there will be an open house at Glades Central High School. Faculty and parents are invited to attend, special guest will be Joseph M. Carroll.

Tractor driver drowns

BELLE GLADE—A search for a missing 62-year old Runyan Village man ended Monday afternoon when he was found floating in a drainage ditch a half mile south of the village, still clutching the steering wheel of his tractor.

Detective Harry Driggers of the Sheriff's Office said Samuel Johnson of 210 B Runyan Village became the object of a search when he failed to return to the labor camp at 5:30 p.m. Monday at the end of the normal workday.

Housing Authority votes to renew building leases

PAHOKEE—At the 17th annual meeting last Thursday, the Board of Commissioners decided to renew the leases of the Florida Farm Worker's Council and the Community Action Council, despite complaints that the tenants are not given priority access to the buildings, or priority consideration in hiring.

"I think they're doing such a good community service, that I don't see how we can turn them down," Commissioner Robert Apelgren said. It is a "personality conflict that they're going to have to work out themselves."

Apelgren was referring to a comment made by Tenant Organization President Ethel Barnes concerning a run-in with a tenant and a CAC employee over the use of the buildings. "I think it's a bad communication system," Apelgren said.

To discount statements that the CAC was not utilizing help from local people as employees, Ms. Maude Lee provided a list of names and addresses, noting that last year there was a reorganization in the Council in which employees were transferred within the Glades as that, in some cases, Pahokee employees were transferred to South Bay and Belle Glade and vice versa.

"If the tenants are discriminated against, that's our problem, but how they choose the staff is not," Apelgren said. "With the good they're doing to the Housing Authority," the tenants should try to be helpful," Commissioner James Wilkinson said. Ms. Lee asked that the tenants "let us know of any strife you have with our legal staff."

Ms. Lee said they have space available to serve 35 children, whom the council is obligated to serve until they enter the school program. There are presently two slots open, she said.

Ms. Shirley Walker, Head Start

Coordinator of the Florida Farm Worker's Council (formerly the Community Action Migrant Program) said her organization hires employees according to their qualifications, not according to income or locality, but the children are chosen according to income.

She said she found that, at a previous time when Housing Authority residents were hired to work, "when they found out that their welfare checks were going to be cut, since their income had to be verified, they quit their jobs."

Mental Health group schedules seminar

The Mental Health Association of Palm Beach County, Inc. announced this week a five week course in the basic concepts of Transactional Analysis (TA), dealing with the structure of the human personality, time structuring, games people play, basic life positions, feelings and scripts. The course, titled, Okness - Just What Is It?, is being taught by Naomi R. Stahl, who has 20 years experience in teaching and counseling in California, Ohio, Illinois and Florida.

Ms. Stahl is under Special Fields contract with ITAA. She has done intensive group and study work at the San Diego Institute for Transactional Analysis with Dr. Hedges Capers. Sessions will last from 10 a.m. to noon every Wednesday from Sept. 21 through Oct. 19. For further information, interested persons can contact the Mental Health Association at 909 Fern St. in West Palm Beach or call 832-3755 or 276-3551.

Steering Committee meeting is slated

BELLE GLADE—The monthly meeting of the Glades Steering Committee of the Community Mental Health Center of Palm Beach County will be held at 12:15 p.m. today in the Glades Branch at 300 W. Canal St. in Belle Glade. "At this meeting," Director Jean Cogar said, "we need to discuss many important matters pertinent to the group's becoming incorporated. Therefore, I hope the members will make every effort to attend."

Miss Cogar said lunch will be served and if anyone desires transportation to the meeting, they should contact her at 996-2079.

Metric home study course set

The Florida Cooperative Extension Service is sponsoring a home study course on the metric system, according to an announcement this week by Mrs. Arlen C. Jones, Extension Home Economics agent-program leader.

"This metric system series," Mrs. Jones said, "is designed to assist people to meet the challenge of converting to the new measuring system."

"Almost every activity in home economics requires measurements of one sort or another," she said. "Measurements are involved in purchasing clothing, food, fabric, home furnishings, household equipment, kitchen cabinets, lumber and other supplies. Measurements of weight, volume, length and temperature are required in much household work such as food preparation, clothing construction, laundering and use of laundering aids, cleaning and use of cleaning products, gardening and use of insecticides."

Mrs. Jones said that with the adoption of the metric system in the United States, people will need to learn new units of measurement and should learn to "think metric."

Those interested in registering for the course can get further information by calling the home economics agent in the Glades at 996-5511.

JOSE ANTONIO GARCIA

Como dijimos la semana pasada, hoy vamos hablar del REINO DE DIOS, prometido por el ATISMO y que a diario se pide en el "Padre Nuestro." (Oración que fue enseñada por Jesucristo). Cuando decimos: "Venga tu Reino", estamos pidiendo al gobierno de Dios sobre la tierra.

La presencia de hombres como Néron, Atila, Hitler, Mussolini y otros gobernantes "tieres" de grandes potencias políticas y tan sanguinarios como los anteriores; obviamente nos hacen pensar que el Reino de Dios, no ha gobernado la tierra por muchos siglos.

Todos los gobiernos desde las tribus mas antiguas pasando por la "democracia griega" y por el Dvecho Romano y llegando hasta la ONU, todos siendo de hechura humana han dejado mucho que desear, pues la felicidad (Que es el propósito de todo gobierno) ha estado muy lejos de todos ellos. Como dice el proverbio bíblico: "De lo mundo no se puede sacar nada bueno". Hoy la tierra es como un mosaico de mil colores, y cada color es una nación con su respectivo gobierno, lo que agudiza más la situación por las barreras de lenguas, raza, costumbres, fronteras, aduanas, y algo que es mas mortífero que la Influenza Española: El nacionalismo! enfermedad patriótica que cada vez abunda mas la división entre los pueblos, teniendo hoy como exponente máximo, la situación creada en las Olimpiadas, donde las competencias atléticas tacitamente son contiendas nacionales y políticas en todo su nivel.

Así como el hombre nace, crece y se desarrolla con un mismo patrón en todo angulo de la tierra, y un medico, puede ser medico lo mismo en el Polo como en el Ecuador, por- que todos los cuerpos humanos son comunes, así de la misma forma, el aliento, la lluvia, el frío, el calor y todos los hechos ecológicos son comunes a la vida de todos los hombres; todos riem, lloran, aman, y ansían por igual la felicidad. Sabiendo estas necesidades el Dios del Cielo, establecera un Reino sobre toda la tierra, su gobernación sera de mar a mar y hasta los cuatro extremos de la tierra cuyo principe de paz, será Jesucristo.

Muy pronto, aunque le cause risa a los escépticos a los agnosticos y a los ateos, habra un fenómeno sobrenatural, Dios se manifestara a la humanidad mediante un acto aterrador de alcance mundial, ese acto se llama en la Biblia EL ARMAGEDON, donde Dios en Justicia destruira toda la iniquidad de sobre la tierra, para limpiarla totalmente.

Primero como señal, habra un ataque global de todos los gobiernos contra la religion para destruirla (Cosa que luce imposible, pero así lo contempla el Apocalipsis) despues habra una gran tribulación de alcance mundial que desembocara en el gran acto del Armagedon, en que todos los sistemas políticos serán destruidos por la mano de Dios. (Como van a temblar los lideres comunistas ateos al ver que si hay un Dios que los enjuicia al igual que muchos lideres religiosos que no han enseñado estas verdades de la Biblia) Para este acto, Dios usara a angeles que son poderosas criaturas espirituales sobrenaturales. Querido lector, considere cuanto poder tienen estos angeles, que uno solo de ellos mato 185.000 soldados en una sola noche.

Esta muestra que Dios solo necesitaría unos miles de angeles solamente para destruir este viejo mundo. El profeta Jeremias describe esta escena espantosa diciendo: "...los muertos estarán tendidos de cabo a cabo de la tierra no serán llorados ni recogidos ni enterrados, sino que serán como estiércol sobre la haz del campo. Solo un acto de origen divino y en justicia podrá traer a la tierra la paz y algo de que carece el presente mundo: El amor entre unos y otros. Los gobiernos actuales con sus guerras miserias y hambre, serán cosas del pasado.

El creador dio un tiempo específico para mostrar que el hombre no sabe gobernarse por si mismo sin dirección divina y ese tiempo esta terminando y muy en breve entregara el reino de la humanidad a su principe de paz Jesucristo que probó su integridad hasta la muerte y bajo su reino no habrán lagrimas ni muerte, habra vida y paz entre los hombres "de buena voluntad."

HOW TO TURN THE TOP 1/3 OF YOUR SUGAR CANE INTO VALUABLE HARVEST CANE.

Sugar cane growers are always looking for ways to boost productivity. Have you ever looked at the top one-third of the cane?

Now there's a way to turn those immature upper nodes into valuable harvest cane. With an application of Polaris® Plant Growth Regulator by Monsanto, the chemical that stimulates sugar cane ripening.

Extensive commercial use has proven that it's now possible to get more recoverable sucrose from the top third of cane, which is the part that is not optimally ripened as a result of poor ripening conditions, such as warm, wet weather.

In fact, under poor ripening conditions, Polaris can increase sucrose levels overall, giving you more recoverable sucrose from every ton of cane.

Contact N.F. Eason, (813) 481-1337, or the distributor for Polaris in your area for full details.

One down, one to go

BELLE GLADE-The City Commission solved one dispute over housing during the regular commission meeting Monday night but another one will have to wait for another workshop session.

After several Southwest Third Street residents protested the planned construction of apartments there by Milton Rader, the commission voted 4-0 (Mayor Ralph Kirk is away on vacation) to deny Rader's request.

The residents said there are already too many apartment buildings in the area and they don't want any on Third Street, where the zoning was recently changed from R-3 Residential, which would have allowed the apartment, to R-1, which allows only single-family dwellings.

Commissioners William Grear said he agreed wholeheartedly with the residents when they complained about the dangers to children which an apartment house in the area would bring.

Commissioner Tom Altman said he disagreed that apartment houses and people who live in them are inherently evil but said he went along with Grear that the population density in the black section of the city is too high. He moved to deny the request and Grear seconded it.

On another problem, however, the commissioners decided to wait until a workshop to be held Monday to decide whether to go along with a proposal by Dr. Howard Hill to build houses on six lots in Sugar Subdivision West while the lots are still owned by the city.

Hill has already attended one workshop two weeks ago in which Mayor Ralph Kirk and Commissioner Tom Altman were the only commissioners present, to discuss the proposal and Kirk and Altman tentatively agreed, saying they would put the matter on the agenda for Monday's meeting.

During that workshop, Kirk and Altman were surprised to find there was no written prohibition in title agreement contracts to buying more than two lots or to building other than CBS homes.

Commissioner Grear said he flatly opposed the construction of wooden frame homes in the subdivision and, after learning, there was no written prohibition to frame homes, asked that no action be taken until a survey was made of people who have already bought lots to get their opinion.

Dr. Hill pointed out to Grear that the homes he intends to build have concrete pilings and foundations and that only the outer walls are of wooden construction.

Hill said he could build the houses and guarantee the commission he would sell them within six months of the time the agreement was signed if he could get the city to go along with his request for a minimum of four lots, although he would like six.

He said that if he failed to sell the homes, which he said would go for $29,000 to $30,000 each, including the price of the lot, within the six months, he would either buy the houses and lots himself or give the homes to the city.

"I just hate to see the city tie up $150,000 out there when the area needs houses," he said. "That's bad business." He agreed with Grear that there is a problem in getting people to buy a $6,000 lot with a need to begin construction of a home within 90 days. That is one of the restrictions placed on the lots.

During the discussion, Bert Ward, a local realtor, told the commission he wasn't financially involved with Dr. Hill but he could sell any one of the lots, if it has a house on it, within one day but it would take a long time without a home on it and with the financial restrictions now tied to the agreements.

"What I want to know," Grear demanded, "is why now, all of a sudden, you're so concerned about providing housing. Why weren't you concerned ten years ago when 12 of us decided to get together and do something about it?"

"It takes a while to learn your way around," Ward said. "I guess we just weren't knowledgeable and progressive citizens."

The commission also signed ordinances which will raise water and sewer rates by an average of 15 percent as of October 1, a move the commission decided on during budget sessions.

On another problem, however, the commissioners decided to wait until a workshop to be held Monday to decide whether to go along with a proposal by Dr. Howard Hill to build houses on six lots in Sugar Subdivision West while the lots are still owned by the city.

Garden Study Club meets

BELLE GLADE-The Belle Glade Garden Club held its first meeting of the new year recently with a record attendance and full agenda for the year ahead.

Mrs. S. M. McAllister, the club's new president, presided and presented to the group many activities for the immediate future. Mrs. Milton Bracken was hostess to a pot luck luncheon for the group in her home.

Guest for this part of the program were Vernon Jones, George Hudspeth, Ken Harris, Aubrey Farmer, S. B. Cowart, J. L. Brown, Eddie Schoepel, A. J. Harvell, Milton Bracken and S. M. McAllister.

Plans were discussed for a Junior Garden Club to be organized in the next few months.

A flower show will be held in the spring with a theme typical to the Glades area. Clubs in the area will be invited.

Announcement was made of course in flower arrangements to be held soon. This will be a four-week course, two nights each week under the direction of Lee Young.

Money raising projects for the club will be in the form of a cake sale in October. Pecans will be sold by the club members in December and a plant sale to be held in the yard of Mrs. S. M. McAllister the last Friday in February.

Funds from these sales will be used toward the beautification of Belle Glade. One such project will be the landscaping of a designated area in the island of SR 80 and RAISING DUST on Main Street Friday, Belle Glade Streets Department employee Robert Johnston manned a jackhammer on the job of putting in parking meters for parallel parking south of where the parking meters were originally located. Police Chief Bill Mathis said there would be no more meters added on Main but the conversion of parking from diagonal to parallel left only about half the number of spaces formerly available. He said the extra meters were just being spaced further apart but further down the street.

L. R. Holt celebrate their 30th

BELLE GLADE-Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Holt of 669 S. E. Third st. in Belle Glade, are celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary today.

Their children Rick, Marcia and Mr. and Mrs. Archer and granddaughter Michele wish to congratulate them on such a happy day. Holt is an agent for Florida East Coast Railway and Mrs. Holt is employed by Seaboard Coastline Railway.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt are planning a second honeymoon at Six Flags Over Georgia near Atlant.

FAFF Club enjoys baby pictures

PAHOKEE-On Tuesday, September 6th, the Fun-After-Fifty-five (FAFF) Club held its regular monthly meeting at noon in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church of Pahokee.

As members and guests assembled, they were intrigued by the display of baby pictures. Comments like these were voiced over and over, "who can that be? I don't recognize anyone! They surely were beautiful babies!"

Identifying these pictures was part of the program later in the meeting. Cleo Douthit and Marion Blech were responsible for the program.

A bountiful covered-dish meal was enjoyed by the 40 members and eight guests; seven guests were from Belle Glade. In the absence of Rub Kemp who was in the hospital, Mrs. Lola Carter and Mrs. Ena Keen were in charge of dinner preparations.

Edna Maxson, president, presided and welcomed everyone. There was a report concerning the sick and reading of a letter from Mamie Mock who recently moved to West Frankfort, Ill. There was singing of Happy Birthday to people who have had or will have birthdays in September.

Mrs. Rada Brackin of Belle Glade invited the group or individuals to attend their newly organized group which is meeting the first Thursday of every month at the Civic Center.

Mrs. Wiley Tillis gave the devotional using the need for using the bible as our "road map" through life.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Edna Maxson. The next meeting will be held October 24th.

Xi Zeta Mu has lunch

BELLE GLADE-Mrs. Gordon Corbin was hostess to Xi Zeta Mu members for their Beginning Day luncheon Saturday.

Mrs. Bert Ward, social chairman, co-ordinate the buffet lunch with a menu of smoked turkey, vegetable casseroles, blueberry cobbler, salad and home-made banana pudding.

Mrs. Tom Swager, president, called the meeting to order and presented chapter plans for the year.

Mrs. Ward outlined the socials for the coming year which are highlighted with a Miami Dolphins football game in November.

Mrs. Corbin, ways and means chairman, outline plans for the annual Craft Bazaar which will be held in October.

Members attending the luncheon were Mrs. Wayne Bair, Mrs. Carl Gilliam, Mrs. Kenneth Lutz, Mrs. Ray Stedham, Mrs. O.E. Shachelford, Mrs. Gene Endinger, Mrs. Jane Evans, sponsor, Mrs. J. D. Lee, III, Mrs. Corbin, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Swager, Mrs. Dan Wallis and Mrs. Frank Cochran were welcomed back as they have been on leave of absence.

the entire operation rather than having to depend on someone else as does Mrs. Austin and others such as TV's Chief Ironsides.

"What it does," Plank said, "is open a whole new door to the world. I lost the use of my legs when I was eight years old and for years I was in the hospital. When they were amputated and I started moving around in a wheelchair, that was one door opened. Another was when I started driving and this is still another."

Plank purchased the van with the lift last week, after having the lift married to the new vehicle. He said he'd thought about putting the lift on an older truck but decided it would be better to go ahead and buy a new van and have the lift and hand controls put on it.

"The only trouble I've had with it," he said, "was the other day when I was getting into the truck and just before it got to the top, it stopped... and started going, 'Mmmmm-mm-mm' and I started cussing."

"I was thinking, 'you blankety-blank thing,' here I've just paid $2,000 for you and you don't even work," he said, "but then I looked down and noticed I'd caught the (left front) wheel between the lift platform and the truck body."

That incident left Plank with a warped wheel on his wheelchair, "but that wasn't the fault of the equipment, it was the fault of the operator," he laughed.

CAPTAIN CLAUDE TINDALL is congratulated on his victory in the Belle Glade City Commission North Borough race Tuesday night by his opponent, Aubrey Farmer, after Farmer told him how the election came out.

Belle Glade election

turned around by the lost votes.

Mrs. Winchester did point out, however, that it's quite common persons will cast a vote in only one race and that could account for some or all of the lost votes.

While the tally was still being made by most people gathered around the vote counters, Farmer made his way over to Tindall, who was standing to one side, told him he was the new city commissioner and shook hands, congratulating Tindall on his win.

Moments later, the new commissioner's wife, Audrey, kissed him and was heard to quip, "Now can we get that pot-hole in front of the house fixed?"

"I don't know how to say this," Tindall then said, "but I'd like to thank all the people who voted for me. I couldn't have done it without them."

Later, relaxing with friends and members of his family, Farmer said the election had been a tough one, "but I've been in a long time now. I've been in office as long as I want and I'm ready to retire."

Returning incumbent Kenneth Harris said he also felt his race had been hard fought. "I thought victory was sweet the first time around, but it's even sweeter the second time. Hopefully, I'll live up to the faith and trust shown me by the voters."

Meredith, walking over the shake hands with Harris, laughed; he felt he had run a good race, "but wait'll next year, or two years from now, and it'll be a different story."

"That's the name of the game," Harris said.

"I wish to express my appreciation," said unopposed Commissioner William Grear, "to the citizens of Belle Glade who were gracious enough to vote for me in my fifth bid for a seat on the City Commission. I have always had the best interests of our city at heart whenever I have made decisions in the past, and I pledge to each of you my continued efforts to do what I can to make Belle Glade a better place in which to live."

Soap makes for slick jail escape

BELLE GLADE-A Palm Beach County Jail prisoner at Belle Glade found soap was good for more than cleaning behind the ears Saturday when he lathered himself up and slipped away in the night.

Victor Harrington, of 416 S.W. Ave. B in Belle Glade, was found missing at noon Saturday with the screen removed from the window of his cell and a narrow, 7 1/2 inch by 22 inch opening between the bars.

Lt. George Suttle of the Sheriff's Office said Harrington had worked the screen loose from the window, which was 15 feet from the ground, during the night with another prisoner.

Questioning the other prisoner, deputies found that even after the two forced the opening, it wasn't wide enough to let them out.

Suttle said the deputies were told that after the two found they couldn't squeeze through, Harrington stepped into the shower, lathered himself up and was able to slip through the small opening.

The other inmate then threw Harrington's clothes to him and lathered himself up to attempt to duplicate the feat but still couldn't make it through.

Suttle said law enforcement officers are still looking for the escaped prisoner, who was being held on charges of burglary and grand larceny.

517 N.W. Fourth St. in Belle Glade. He was planning to make Belle Glade his permanent home and invitations to his planned wedding to Lavoise Taylor had already been mailed.

He and Miss Taylor would have been married on Sept. 24, only two weeks after he drove his newly purchased Corvette into Hillsboro Canal 14 miles east of Belle Glade.

Florida Highway Patrol Trooper M.R. Matz, who investigated the accident along with Homicide Investigator Don Williams, also served as one of the pallbearers at Hampton's funeral.

Matz reported the attorney was bound for Belle Glade from West Palm Beach Saturday morning, shortly after purchasing the new car, and swerved into the eastbound lane to avoid striking a dead opossum.

Matz said he lost control of the car, leaving 172 feet of scuff marks before colliding with the guard rail in the westbound lane and slid along the guard rail for 83 feet before jumping the rail and crashing into the canal.

EAST BOROUGH City Commission candidates Earl Meredith and Kenneth Harris shake hands Tuesday after the two found

Harris had won the election by a narrow margin of 72 votes.

Zanzibar is practically the world's sole producer of cloves.

Washington says "Don't worry," but we're worried. You should worry, too.

Some people in Washington say, "Don't worry about an oil use tax... we won't let Florida suffer."

But the proposed energy bill says: "A tax is hereby imposed on any taxable electric utility use of petroleum during each calendar year after calendar year 1982..." (Senate Bill 1472—the tax part of the proposed energy program)

This tax will hit hardest at a few states like Florida, where conversion to coal by 1983 is absolutely impossible for all electric utilities. States near coal mines already use a lot of coal, and can easily increase coal use. But we couldn't even get the coal shipped in, much less get new plants permitted and built by 1983. So Florida utilities and their customers stand to pay over $200 million a year in these new taxes. With only 4% of the country's people, we'll pay almost 10% of the fuel use taxes!

If they don't mean what S. 1472 says, why don't they change it?

Some people in Washington say, "Don't worry about Federal super-control over your state... we don't want to take away your state authority."

But the proposed energy bill says: "If the Administration determines... that such authority (the state regulatory commission) has not implemented such policies... such authority shall be considered as not having such enforcement responsibilities until such time as he determines..." (Senate Bill 1469, Part E—which deals with Federal takeover of state functions)

This takeover law will let a Washington bureaucrat, who doesn't answer to any voters in Florida or elsewhere, control every major electric service decision. He will control your job, your home life, our State's prosperity.

If they don't mean what S. 1469 says, why don't they change it?

There's much more like this in these "energy" bills. Much that has nothing to do with bringing you more energy or reliable electric service. Much that increases Federal control over Florida and you. Much that will add to the cost of electric energy by piling on the cost of bureaucracy.

They will make changes... if you demand them!

There's still time to get the energy program into better shape. To make the bills which, for good reason, cannot convert to coal by 1983.

But there isn't much time. And only you can put on the pressure. It will take a flood of letters, telegrams and phone calls to get these basic changes:

- 1) write into S. 1472 a clear exemption from the fuel use tax for any electric utility which, for good reason, cannot convert to coal by 1983;
- 2) take out of S. 1469 all of Part E, and keep electric service decisions in Florida, with people who know our needs;
- 3) write into both bills positive incentives to encourage finding and developing new oil and natural gas supplies, to get nuclear power plants approved more quickly and to make coal more economical to use as a fuel.

Services are held for Kerry Hampton

A RIBBON OVER 80 was cut in a number of places at the same time during ceremonies Saturday when Florida Highway Patrol Captain W.B. Oliver, Col. Reid Clifton, state insurance safety commissioner, State Senate President Philip Lewis, State Representative

Tom Lewis, Former County Commissioner E.W. "Bud" Weaver, County Commissioner Bill Bailey and DOT Engineer Frank Weatherholt all wield scissors simultaneously.

BELLE GLADE—Funeral services for Kerry La Rue Hampton, Palm Beach County Assistant State Attorney at the Glades County Office Building, were held Tuesday at St. John First Baptist Church in Belle Glade with the Rev. Charles Robinson officiating. An Ocala native, Hampton, 30, assumed his duties with the State's Attorney's office in Belle Glade in January. He died Saturday in an automobile accident on SR 80 east of Belle Glade.

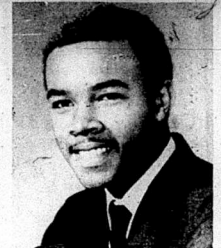

He was a 1973 graduate of Howard University in Washington D.C. and received his law degree from Antioch School of Law in 1976. He was a member of the Mt. Zion African Methodist Episcopal Church in Ocala. He was cited by the NAACP for work he had done in the Civil Rights movement.

Survivors include his son, Kerry Jabreel Hampton of Ocala; his fiancée, Miss LaVoise E. Taylor of Belle Glade; his parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. R. Hampton of Ocala; brothers, Lee R. Hampton II of Chicago, Ill. and Ronald Hampton of Gainesville and a sister, Gwendolyn Hampton of Ocala.

Honorary pallbearers were the State Attorneys of Palm Beach County. Active pallbearers were Lt. George Suttle and Detective Deputy Albert Harper of the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office, Patrolman Eduardo Bujuelo of the South Bay Police Department, Patrolman Charles Collier of the Pahokee Police Department, Trooper Mike Matz of the Florida Highway Patrol and Patrolman Isaac Jones of the Belle Glade Police Department. Burial was in Hughes-Chestnut Cemetery in Ocala.

Taylor Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Gunter won't grant automatic increase

By Bill Gunter
State Insurance Commissioner

Last week, members of the Joint Underwriters Association, a pool of 300 auto insurance companies that insure almost 600,000 drivers, came before me to request a 43 percent average increase in auto insurance rates.

During the public hearing, I closely questioned several aspects of the rate hike proposal and the JUA's operating policy.

For example, one of the items that I questioned was the JUA's failure to consider the investment income gained by the companies providing auto insurance in the JUA pool in its rate making process.

Another aspect of their operational policy that raised questions was the writing off of $1.8 million in premiums due last year as uncollectable. In private business, this type of write-off is unthinkable.

I am also concerned with the increasing number of motorists insured under the JUA and the lack of success the Association has had in removing the "good" drivers who were forced into JUA by the restricted competitive auto insurance markets.

Although the Legislature mandated that the Association be self-supporting, I can assure you it is not my intent to automatically approve such an auto increase.

Census workers to ask

Survey to gather disease data

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey in this area during the week of September 19-23 to determine the extent people have been immunized against selected diseases.

The survey is conducted throughout the U.S. every year to provide information on immunization against measles, influenza, polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, rubella and mumps needed for administration of health programs geared to disease prevention. These health questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Results of the monthly employment survey provide data on conditions in the labor force, prime indicators of the economic health of the country. For example, in July the survey indicated that of the 97.3 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 90.6 million were employed. The nation's unemployment rate was 6.9 percent, down from 7.1 percent in June and substantially below the recession peak of 8.9 percent reached in the second quarter of 1975.

Personal information supplied in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Interviewers who will visit households in this area include Mrs. Doris Rosenberg, Mrs. Betty Gariga and Mrs. Selma Leavitt.

Public hearing set on Auto insurance

WEST PALM BEACH—The location for the public hearing on Auto Insurance scheduled for 9 a.m. today has been changed from the Palm Beach County Courthouse Commission chambers to the court chambers, room 140, also located in the courthouse. The date and time of the hearing will remain the same.

Speaking at the hearing will be William D. Hawkins, member of the board of directors of the Florida Association of Insurance Agents; Glen Owens, Independent Appraisers; Barney Walker, president of the Palm Beach County Claimsmen's Association; Jack Monahan, executive vice president of the Florida Hospital Association; Dr. Philip Lichtblau, orthopedic surgeon and member of the Palm Beach Medical Society; A. Ward Wagner Jr., Association of Florida Trial Lawyers; Charles H. Damsel Jr., president of the Florida Defense Attorneys Association.

Suncoast outscores Pahokee in opener

PAHOKEE—At home on Lair Field the Pahokee Blue Devils didn't fair too well Friday night. In their season-opener against Suncoast, the game ended with a score of 28-14 with the Suncoast Chargers outscoring the Blue Devils.

The loss brings Pahokee down from second to fourth place in the Class AA high school football rankings.

The Chargers got off to a quick start with a pass from quarterback Charles Jones to Anthony Carter for the first scoring of the game. Jones then made a sideline run for the two point conversion.

The ball changed hands three times before Suncoast again scored at the beginning of the second quarter. A two point conversion gave the Chargers a 14-0 lead over Pahokee, who lost 24 players from last year's state runner-up team.

But the Devils came back with a strong ground game before a pass to Vincent Bush fell incomplete. A final passing surge at the 18 yard line put six points on the board for Pahokee, as short end Stafford Everett held on for the touchdown. A pitch out to tailback Joseph Brown only gained one yard with the two point conversion failing.

The next Blue Devil drive came after Suncoast punted, bringing Pahokee to the 49 yard line. Following handoffs to Ray Wells and Osmond Edwards and an inference call on Suncoast, the Devils arrived at Suncoast's 32 yard line with a first down. Ronnie Osborne gained five yards with a quarterback sneak but a pass attempt to Charles Biggs was incomplete. A clipping penalty against Suncoast brought Pahokee to the 17 yard line with a first down, but Osborne was sacked at the 30 yard line during a backwards ward-off.

With 1:01 minutes left in the first half, Suncoast managed an interception, passed two times and with a final pass from Jones to Joe Simpson, made Suncoast's second touchdown with 15 seconds left in the half. The two point conversion boosted them up to 14-6 score at the end of the first half.

During the third quarter, Pahokee's Osborne fumbled but the ball was recovered by Frank Walker, offensive tackle. On the fourth down play Stafford Everett punted to Suncoast, who, nine plays later, also had a fumble which was recovered by the Chargers. Pahokee's Charles Hager almost captured an

League honors softball players

The Pahokee Men's Softball League officially ended its summer season with its Annual Awards Banquet on Saturday, September 10 at the Pahokee Lions Club Building. President Roy Goodson was host to a capacity crowd of approximately 150 guests. Special guests attending were Mayor and Mrs. Duncan Padgett, City Councilman and Mrs. Norma Norman and Mr. and Mrs. James Sweet of City Products, Inc.

Following a brief welcome, everyone enjoyed a delicious bar-b-que dinner, prepared by the League, complete with all the trimmings, prepared by the kitchen staff of GCI.

Special recognition was given to: Mayor Padgett and Councilman Norman for their assistance during the season; City Products for donating all the ice used in the concession stand and at the banquet; Glenda Goodson for keeping the scorebook; Linda Parker for running the concession stand; Woodie Salvatore for keeping the statistics; Joe Davis for his many hours of work on the ball field; Milton Salvatore and Frank Gillis for their help throughout the year; Mike Frazier for arranging the food preparation by GCI; and special thanks to Walt Parker for all his valuable help over and above the duties of his office.

Mayor Padgett informed the group of the developments and prospects for the new ball field and expressed his desire to work with the League officials on this project.

Plaques of appreciation were presented to each team sponsor and to City Products, Inc., for the ice, and to Consolidated Chemicals, Inc. for the use of their tapers during the July 4th tournament.

Trophies for the Most Valuable Player on each team were presented. These were voted on by their respective teams.

BELLE GLADE—With the season opener safely in the bag, the Glades Day School Gators are getting ready for a tough contest against Kings Academy Friday night.

Last Friday, the Gators shut out St. Petersburg Northside 14-0 in a game that was well attended by local supporters.

Northside, although ranked 12th in the pre-season Class A poll, wasn't able to mount a scoring drive, though they managed to make it down to the Gator five before losing the ball on downs.

Both Gator touchdowns were scored by Quique Enchave, the first on the first series after the Gators kicked off to the Mustangs. Enchave took the punt and scampered 56 yards through the startled Mustangs before they could rally their defense. Kenny Buckner's extra point attempt was good and the Gators were ahead to stay.

Following the half, the Mustangs kicked off and the Gators mounted another drive, consuming six plays, which again found Enchave in the end zone on a four-yard run.

The only other time the Mustangs threatened was when their halfback broke loose as the Gators were blitzing and found himself in the clear.

But safety Steve Richie outpaced him down the field and caught up with him on the Gator 35. "It was a good play on Steve's part," commented Coach Byron Walker. "And the best thing is Steve isn't our fastest player."

In the third period, Enchave suffered a partial fracture of the collarbone and was out of the game. Walker said he will be able to return in "two or three weeks." Enchave's place was quickly filled by Larry Fowler and Elmer Miller, who will see action until Enchave is back in play. On defense, Tim Burke will take Enchave's place as safety.

Another injury that threatened the Gators, but didn't prove to be much of a hindrance, was a sprain suffered by Kenny Buckner during practice before last week's game. "Kenny played in pain throughout the game," said Walker, "but he'll be okay this week."

Other bright spots for the Gators were the safeties, about whom Walker says he has four of the best in Class A football.

Buckner, Winston Byrd (I'd like to have 22 of him, says Walker), Howard Ayres, and Basil Markham are all ready to see duty and are able to fill each other's slots when the time demands.

Two other outstanding players in the Northside game were Doug Tanner and Mark Foster, playing guard and tackle on offense. "They opened the holes and kept them open," said Walker. "Their manhandling of the defense on the right side was responsible for our touchdown drive."

Walker said losing two fumbles was one area upon which he will be working, but wasn't too concerned about the Gator's 92 yards in penalties.

interception but the ball hit the ground, ruling it incomplete. Suncoast scored early in the third quarter with a four yard run by Ricardo Griffiths, making the score 22-6 with a two point conversion.

Pahokee's William Joseph dropped Suncoast on two consecutive plays for a one yard and two yard loss respectively, before the third quarter ended.

By the end of the third quarter, Suncoast had run 60 plays while Pahokee ran 46.

During the fourth quarter, Pahokee was held for a loss and Vince Bush punted to Suncoast who held on to the ball for several plays before punting back to the Blue Devils at Pahokee's own one yard line. After gaining one yard up the middle, a three point play intended for Pahokee's Joseph Brown found the hands of Suncoast's Anthony Carter who ran across the line for Suncoast's third touchdown. The extra point was blocked by James Sweat, leaving the score at 28-6 with 3:36 minutes left in the game.

The Blue Devils then made a comeback with their final touchdown from a pass by Osborne to Marvin Britt, a penalty against Suncoast was declined. A pitch out from Osborne to Joseph Brown gave the Devils two extra points with 37 seconds left on the clock, the final score being Suncoast 28 and Pahokee 14.

COACHES CORNER

By Pahokee High School
Head Coach Antoine Russell

PAHOKEE—The Pahokee Blue Devils opened their 1977 football season, losing to Suncoast 28-14. Many people viewed the loss as an upset, but from a coaching standpoint, it was the Blue Devils' first step in rebuilding an outstanding football team.

With the beginning of practice Monday, we the coaching staff went to work trying to point out and correct the mistakes that took place Friday night.

With a lot of work and teaching, this Friday night's game with Clewiston should show great improvement.

BELLE GLADE—Wallis Pharmacy proved that they are number one when they defeated the Team B All-Stars 12-6 in the final game of the season, last Tuesday night at the Canal Point field.

Neither team could score in the first inning but Sharon Clayton started the scoring for Wallis in the top of the second when she hit a double into right field, followed by runs by Fran McLeod and Bonnie Merklinger. Janie Priest crossed the plate for the all-stars in the bottom of the second to bring the score to 3-1, with Wallis in the lead.

Donia Adams and Judy Johnson scored for the All-Stars in the bottom of the third to tie the game at 3 all, after holding Wallis scoreless in the top half of the inning.

Six runs crossed the plate for Wallis in the top of the fourth, mostly due to errors by the all-stars, before second baseman Rita Schoenfeld and first baseman Susan Moss teamed up to make the final out.

The bottom of the fourth found Paula Anderson, Rita Schoenfeld and Sara Rives scoring for the All-Stars before third baseman Kim Akin fielded the third out ending the scoring with Wallis leading 9-6.

Both Wallis and the All-Stars played good defensive ball in the fifth inning with both teams fielding three consecutive outs.

Wallis loaded the bases in the top of the sixth but they were left stranded when pitcher (Cheryl) Waters, was put out at second base on a fielders choice. The All-Stars followed suit, loading the bases also, before pitcher Sara Rives, was thrown out at first.

Bonnie Merklinger, Janie Meadows and Doris Velez scored for Wallis in the top of the seventh to bring the score to 12-6, then took the field to end the scoring and the game, with the Wallis girls proving that they really are the best.

This was the final game of the Glades Women's Softball League for this season and we would like to take this time to thank Terry Steele, Angel Alava, Eddie Latur and Mr. DeCampus, who were our umpires. They were brave enough to be on the field with twenty women (and their coaches) and unless you've ever been there, you don't know how it feels!

Also, thanks to all those who worked so hard to make this year such a success. Special thanks to Jim's Electronics, who loaned us a really nice PA system for the season! Thanks to all of you.

trophy. Individual trophies were also presented to Wedgworth's team members: Andy Ballard, Gary Bradshaw, Eddie Buckner, Mike Burkett, Mark Crisman, Bruce Huff, Tom King, Kenny Martin, Pope McMullen, Bill Miller, Mike Shoemaker, Doug Wedgworth, and bat boy Derek Korbly.

Accepting the second place trophy for PPI was Tony Rodriguez, manager. Garry Gillis accepted Union 76's third place team trophy.

Gary Bradshaw received the trophy for the Most Homers with 31. Although there is no second place trophy in this category, Eddie Buckner was recognized for his 23 homers. Both Buckner and Bradshaw played for Wedgworth.

The Most Valuable Pitcher in the League was Phil Bonnell of Hattton Bros. Ronnie Huff received the trophy for the Highest Batting Average with .639. Tony Rodriguez was recognized as having the runner-up average of .622.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Most Valuable Player in the League award to Gary Bradshaw. Bradshaw was given a beautiful bronze statue in recognition of his outstanding playing abilities and his display of good sportsmanship throughout the season.

Gib Tucker recognized Roy Goodson for the time and loyalty he has shown the League and was joined by all in attendance in a round of applause for the League President.

The banquet adjourned to the home of Roy Goodson to continue the celebration.

Below are listed the official team standings, overall team records, team batting averages and homers, individual batting averages and homers. The League totaled 2,350 hits in 5,840 AB's for a batting average of .402 with a total of 319 homers.

Bowhunting increasingly complex

Rotenberger WMA-In Southwestern Palm Beach County, the hunting season began at dawn Saturday for a number of sportsmen involved in an increasingly complex sport.

Archery season officially opened and anglers were seen again for the first time in eight months along the banks of the Miami Canal 18 miles south of Lake Harbor.

The miles of sawgrass and dog fence to the west of the canal and across the canal banks in the Holey Land Wildlife Management Area began to sprout ladders in the pre-dawn darkness and men who envision themselves as modern-day Robin Hoods climbed atop to begin their lonely vigil.

But Robin Hood would have turned green with envy. Instead of his stout yew longbow, the hunters of Rotenberger and the Holey Lands are armed with Rube Goldberg contraptions that can shoot an arrow straighter, faster, and more accurately.

The compound bow, latest development on the scene now in wide use, is composed of two stout limbs only Samson could bend. Attached to the limbs are pulleys and cables and in the middle is a handle of magnesium or laminated wood. Through modern science, the pulleys and cables bring tremendous force into play that bends the limbs and sends out an arrow with only half the effort Robin Hood required.

And while Robin had only his sharp eye and steady hand to guide his shot, today's archer is sometimes aided by string peep sights, Berger buttons, bowights, nocking points, archer's gloves, hunting stabilizers, and even clickers that tell him when the bow is properly drawn and ready to fire.

He would appear the ancestors of the deer Seminoles, one hunted with their primitive weapons wouldn't stand a chance against this technical onslaught. But the times really haven't changed that much.

The bowhunter of today still must be knowledgeable in the habits and haunts of his quarry and he normally puts in hours of practice to be at the top of his form so that the one or two chances he may have of bringing home the venison will be successes. More bowhunters still wind up eating hamburger than munch on deer steak.

And unlike the man with shotgun or rifle, his instrument is effective at only short distances and he must creep silently into range or wait patiently until his buck is close enough.

If not, he'll find the trophy he sought vanishing quickly, winning the contest of nerve.

An increasing number of area sportsmen have been turning to the bow for hunting and sales of bowhunting equipment have been fairly brisk in Belle Glade. In order to arm himself, the beginning archer should expect to pay between $50 and $250 for a quality bow and another $25 or so for six matching aluminum or fiberglass arrows.

That's the basics, but if he is to be a bowhunter, he can also expect to need a bow quiver for around $15, a bow sight for around $10, hunting broadheads for $5 or so, target points for $1, and a dozen or so "extras" he could well use.

And that doesn't included his camouflage clothing, boots or shoes, face paint, deer musk scent, portable stand such as a ladder if he intends to hunt in the saw grass, hunting license, and $5 archery permit.

Add to that his automobile expenses, which could include damage from the rough roads over which he must pass, gasoline to get to and from the hunting area, and innumerable other expenses, and you have venison that would be cheap if priced at caviar's poundage rate.

Most local bowhunters wind up at Rotenberger, the Holey Lands, or Conservation Area 3, all south of Lake Harbor; J.-W. Corbett Wildlife Management Area east of Pahokee, or Brown's Farm, also south of Lake Harbor.

Some have obtained permission to hunt on private lands for deer or hogs and even fewer still have journeyed far for their sport. One of these is Bart Crawford of Pahokee, who is hunting elk in Colorado.

Crawford, who could safely be called one of the lake area's most successful bowhunters, still has days in which he goes home to hot dogs.

One day in the sawgrass, he said he was crossing a waist-deep canal when he heard a splash near him. He turned and watched as a nice buck waded into the canal next to him. When the deer turned its head, Crawford drew back, but couldn't shoot because the deer turned once more and began watching him.

If he had loosed his arrow, the movement would have caused the buck to "jump the string," meaning the deer would have vacated the area so fast, the arrow would not have had a chance to reach him.

Finally, the deer wandered off and Crawford still hadn't shot. While it wasn't funny to him, his partner on the hill who was watching the whole affair through binoculars got a good laugh out of it.

Crawford and several other men from both Belle Glade and South Bay have been practicing their shooting in anticipation of opening day near Rardin Park between Pahokee and Belle Glade.

If they are successful this season, which runs into early October, it will be because of that practice and the amount of patience they have.

But the hunting at Rotenberger was not destined to last for long. Ask Max Pope and David Fountain, both of Pahokee, why they cleared out so fast.

Of if Max or David aren't available, ask any of the hundred or so bowhunters who left with the rising of dawn.

Legions, battalions, and divisions of mosquitoes roamed the glade and dared anyone to open his car window. They were a non-stemmed flood that covered pantslegs and chewed on any exposed flesh, biting right through thick layers of mosquito dope.

Most hunters couldn't take them. Most left before 8:00 a.m. The city of camps that lined the banks broke up and tents were put away, cars fumigated, and hunters left for home.

Recent heavy rains had caused the mosquito onslaught and even the deer felt the effects. While the population of whitetails was said to be good, the deer were "laid up" swatting mosquitoes with their tails and waiting on a stand for abuck was mostly a waste of time. Little black Everglades mosquitoes were the most numerous, buzzing around in a black cloud. But they had to move aside when the huge "gallinippers" came calling. One gallinipper would make six of the Everglades mosquito and these fierce biters were only slightly less populous than their small cousins.

"You don't have to wear camouflage out there," one exasperated bowhunter said, "the mosquitoes will supply it for you."

So opening day at Rotenberger was a bust. But a month's worth of season remains and the mosquitoes' lifespan is only a couple of weeks. The diehard bowhunters will be back.

Belle Glade

United Methodists schedule concert

BELLE GLADE—Community United Methodist Church will present "Jeannie and Nora" in a sacred concert Sept. 25 following churchwide Family Night dinner. Belle Glade residents will remember Norma Jeannie Royals, who grew up in this city. She is now Mrs. Winston Dodge, of West Palm Beach and the soprano lead in this duo. Her parents, Mrs. H. L. Royals and the late "Jack" Royals, lived in this community for many years.

Jeannie Dodge and Nora Ammann started singing together more than 10 years ago as part of a trio performing at the First Baptist Church of West Palm Beach. The trio eventually emerged as a duo which has sung in numerous churches on the Gold Coast. They also sing at banquets and entertain at various condominiums and nursing homes, combining patriotic and gospel music.

Jeannie and Nora have recorded an album of gospel music called "It's a Wonderful Life". They are both sincere Christians who love the Lord and love to sing His praises. You will be thrilled by their beautiful harmony, joy in singing and radiant love shown in their songs.

The public is invited to attend this concert which will be presented at the Community United Methodist Church in Belle Glade at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 25.

St. Peter's Lutheran adds two mobile classrooms

BELLE GLADE—St. Peter's Lutheran School added two new mobile classrooms to the school's campus at 200 E. Canal St. to house grades 1-4.

The new classrooms were added to make it possible for the school to be at one site. A dedication and supper will be held at the new location Sunday, Sept. 25, with all members and friends of the school invited to attend.

Obituary

Robert Lewis Murray, III

BELLE GLADE—Funeral services for Robert Lewis Murray III, agricultural equipment salesman for the past 30 years in the Belle Glade area, were held Monday at Mixson Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Robert Atkins officiating.

Murray, 60, of 109 N.W. Ave. C, died Friday after an extended illness at Glades General Hospital. He was associated with the Farm Home Equipment Company in Orlando, Murray Equipment Co., Thornberry Tractor Co., Richardson Tractor Co. and, more recently, Lake Equipment Co., all dealers in Allis-Chalmers equipment.

He was a veteran of World War II, when he served as a flying sergeant in the Pacific Theatre while in the Air Force. He was a member of the Belle Glade Lions Club, American Legion Post #20 and a member of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity while he attended L.S.U.

He is survived by his widow, Helen T. Murray; a son, Douglas Murray of Belle Glade; a brother, John T. "Jack" Murray of Beaumont, Tex.; a sister, Mrs. Walter C. "Midge" Sweeney of Coral Gables and one grandchild, Stephanie Dawn Murray of Belle Glade.

Burial was at Ortona Cemetery in Moore Haven. Pallbearers were Ned Ayres, Jack Fullenweider, Jack Fullenweider Jr., Mike Miller, Rickie Fessenden and Bob McElrath.

Mixson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Crutches on your 31st birthday Doesn't that tell you something? Happy Birthday HILDA!!!

Dad's steady influence is needed for...

LIFE'S OBSTACLES

We can easily see physical obstacles such as logs, boulders, and many other things that may be too difficult for our children to handle, but things that are not physical are not always so obvious. A young child needs help from his parents in spiritual matters too. The church can be an influence on children's lives, but when you, a parent, are taking part in church worship, you can be an even greater influence. Give your children, the leaders of the future, a hand now when they need it most. Take them to church regularly... and you too, will have a fuller and better life.

ATTEND CHURCH

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long preserve and the freedoms, which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Coleman Adv. Ser.

This message is sponsored by these community-minded businesses who remind you to attend the church of your choice.

Cabin Dry Cleaners

Son continues father's business

Randy Davidson is the owner-manager of Cabin Cleaners located at 240 Avenue A in Belle Glade. He bought the business from his father, who owned it for approximately 45 years.

Cabin Cleaners is involved in the dry cleaning of clothes, alterations, zippers, waterproofing, moth proofing, and handling of suede.

Davidson became interested in the dry cleaning business through his father. He worked there off and on during high school and college. When his father, Paul Sr., decided to retire, it was only natural for Randy to buy the business and continue it.

Randy is originally from Belle Glade. He grew up here and attended Glades Day School. He skipped his senior year in high school and went on to attend Palm Beach Atlantic College. After one year there, he received his diploma from Glades Day School. Davidson then attended Palm Beach Junior College and the University of Houston.

When not working, Davidson enjoys playing the guitar, building things, and playing with his German shepherd, Alisha.

Before taking over Cabin Cleaners, Randy worked for Southern Bell and for a short time was the assistant Sporting Goods manager for Woolco. While working with the telephone company, he was also an auxiliary policeman for the town of Green Acres.

Besides Randy, Cabin Cleaners employs six others. Alfred Eggleton, who Randy claims is "his greatest asset," has worked there for 38 years. Other employees include Davidson's mother, Thelma, Eula Mackey, Grace Mann, Florine Harris, and Sheila Anderson.

We asked how the economic conditions affected Cabin Cleaners, Davidson said that he had to cut his profits with the fuel situation like it is. He says that he tries to keep prices down and has cut costs to enable him to stay in business.

As to the future, Davidson said that he will continue to do his best to give his customers what they pay for. He said that he could honestly say that he and his employees do their best and would continue to and would also try to eliminate any problems that might arise with any of his customers.

When asked his opinion of Belle Glade and its future, Davidson stated that he loves Belle Glade. He feels that it is a part of him since he has been here so long. Davidson said he likes the feeling of knowing most everyone and the slow pace of a small friendly town.

Davidson does feel that Belle Glade is growing and says that growth should be good for business.

One issue that Davidson feels strongly on is the storefront conditions on Avenue A. He says that he would like to see them cleaned up and beautified. He feels that the city is doing its part by putting in the sidewalks and resurfacing the road. He thinks that the businessmen should do their part by taking pride in the looks of their businesses.

In summary, Davidson said that he would continue to serve his customers in the best way he could. He'll do his best to keep prices down and to make things as convenient for his customers as possible.

One way he achieves this is through his hours. Cabin Cleaners is open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday. He said that until the economy gets so bad he can't afford to stay in business he'll be right here in Belle Glade.

I wish to thank the many friends and supporters who worked for me and everyone who voted for me Tuesday.

I intend to do everything I can to live up to the confidence you expressed in me during the next two years.

THE BEEF PEOPLE

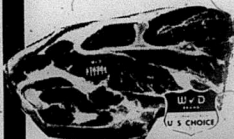

BEHIND THE TITLE, THERE'S A COMMITMENT.

When we started calling ourselves the beef people, we had to be sure we could live up to the title. So we committed ourselves to selling only the choicest beef...beef that you'd always be proud to serve. It's a commitment we've kept, and it has kept our customers coming back. Beef that pleases...that's the Winn Dixie way!
